Dear Mr. Nahodvl:

As you know, the investigation in your case has been completed and the District Attorney has determined that there is no basis for filing a criminal Complaint. No charges will be made against you, nor is any criminal charge anticipated.

I sincerely regret that you have even had to suffer the distress of an investigation in this matter. The investigation apparently has totally cleared you and I would anticipate that the matter is completely over. If any further information is required by any of your friends, associates or anyone, please feel free to have them contact the undersigned.

Sincerely,

Dear John:

Thank you for the information concerning the above named individual. This is helpful to us in starting a file for refusal of registration attempts.

Please keep us informed as more action takes place related to this matter. We would like to have the outcome of the legal action when it is completed. A conviction and sentencing will strengthen our file for refusal of future registration attempts.

If I can be of any help, please don't hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Paul Ernst, Director

Man accused of child molesting

VICTORVILLE — Sheriff's deputies arrested a Victorville man Tuesday for suspicion of child molestation.

James John Nahooyi, 39, is accused of child molestation related to alleged unlawful sexual activity at his Arroyo Avenue home involving "several" boys aged 10 to 14, said Senior Deputy Fred Hoffman.
